EYFS

We loved our EYFS Sports Day! We played lots of sports and had lots of fun. We enjoyed the: welly wanging; running races; hook a duck; quoit balancing; javelin throw; obstacle course; egg and spoon race and the penalty shootout. It was lovely to see so many parents come to watch us!

KS1 (Years 1 and 2)

KS1 Sports Day was last Thursday, and the children had a great time. Each class was split into 2 groups and went round each station and scored points. The winning team was 1KE. The photos are Year 2's participating in running, hitting and passing games.

KS2 (Years 3 and 4)

Over the last 2 weeks, we have been completing our Stags penalty shoot-out throughout the school.

Here are some action shots of 4AO taking their penalties.

Well done Robert who was our top-scorer!

KS2 (Years 5 and 6)

Well Done Year 6!

Our year 6 children have work incredibly hard this year. Despite the difficult couple of years the children have had, they have absolutely SMASHED their SAT's.

They have made us incredibly proud! Well Done!

Look out for:

Well Done to Dominik B in 5JS, who has had his lovely long hair cut and has donated it to The Little Princess Trust. What an inspirational young man!

Attendance:

Whole School attendance is 92.26 for last week, which is really low =(Let's see if we can improve this for the last week in school.
The class with the highest attendance is 2MB with 98.89%. Well done 2MB!

Time 2 Chat:

All the children on Monday had opportunity to visit their new class and meet their class teacher. Please talk to your child about their visit. You could find out.....

How they found their visit.

What they did

Who their class teacher is

Which classroom they will be in

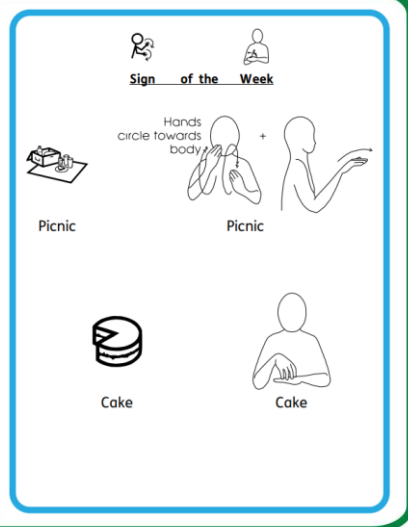

What they are looking forward to learning

Any worries they have.
