

With her infectious laugh and high energy, Rosie Jones has quickly become a must-see act on the UK comedy circuit. The ex-television researcher was awarded second place in the Leicester Mercury's New Comedian of The Year Award 2018 and has gone on to star on 8 Out Of 10 Cats, The Last Leg, Comedy Central's Live from the Comedy Store, Roast Battle, Mock the Week and Live at the Apollo, as well as Dave's Hypothetical.

Rosie has performed stand-up comedy at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe, incorporating her cerebral palsy into her comedic style; with the Scotsman describing her show as "both elegantly crafted and mischievous to its bones". She has also appeared on other television shows and hosts the podcast 'Daddy Look at Me'. Last year she made her primetime debut in a two-part Silent Witness special.
